

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

August 9, 2018

CONTACT:

Pauline Anton, President / CEO (512) 444-5727

Texas Businesses and Member Chambers Honored By TAMACC
During 43rd Annual Hispanic Business Convention of Texas

BUDA, TX – The Texas Association of Mexican American Chambers of Commerce (TAMACC) will recognize Texas businesses, individuals and organizations during the TAMACC 43rd Annual Hispanic Business Convention of Texas in San Marcos, Texas.

The TAMACC Annual Convention is September 6 through 8, 2018 at the Embassy Suites San Marcos Hotel. It is one of the largest statewide Hispanic business gatherings in Texas. Each year, TAMACC Members nominate individuals from their community for these prestigious awards. The 2018 winners are:

Del Rio Hispanic Chamber of Commerce
2018 Small Chamber of the Year

El Paso Hispanic Chamber of Commerce
2018 Large Chamber of the Year

Edna Posada, Owner, Aldani, Inc.
2018 Businesswoman of the Year from a Small Chamber
McAllen, Texas

Yolanda Arriola, President and Founder, Southwest University
2018 Businesswoman of the Year from a Large Chamber
El Paso, Texas

Mike Capello, Owner, Chisolm Trail Barbeque
2018 Businessman of the Year from a Small Chamber
Lockhart, Texas

Frank Spencer, III, Owner, Aztec Contractors, Inc.
2018 Businessman of the Year from a Large Chamber
El Paso, Texas

AT&T
2018 Corporate Hispanic Advocate of the Year from a Small Chamber
San Antonio, Texas

El Paso Water Utilities
2018 Corporate Hispanic Advocate of the Year from a Large Chamber
El Paso, Texas

Texas Association of Mexican American Chambers of Commerce is the Leading Hispanic Business Organization in Texas Since 1975

The convention provides endless opportunities for the attendees from around the state: procurement with businesses, state agencies, universities, and corporations; tools to assist business growth; networking with leaders that inspire entrepreneurs to start their own business; individuals who are looking for new opportunities; representatives from Fortune 500 companies; workshops and speakers discussing a variety of topics that impacts our professional growth and business bottom line; best practice discussions with Hispanic Chamber and Business Organizations; and networking where people do business with people.

A complete list of events is posted on the web site and is updated frequently as facilitators, speakers and guests are confirmed, along with additional information, at www.HBCTexas.com.

About TAMACC

The Texas Association of Mexican American Chambers of Commerce (TAMACC) is a nonprofit 501 (c)(6) organization created to promote business leadership, create economic opportunities and provide legislative advocacy for the Hispanic business community in Texas. TAMACC was founded in 1975 to encourage opportunities in commerce and to organize local programs to improve the economic condition of the Hispanic population. TAMACC is an association with more than 15,000 members and advocates for over 700,000 Hispanic businesses in Texas.

###

Texas Association of Mexican American Chambers of Commerce is the Leading Hispanic Business Organization in Texas Since 1975

606 Main Street  Buda, Texas 78610  (512) 444-5727  www.TAMACC.org